NEWS LETTER

October 2018

Pot Luck Supper

October is a great month for the New England Fly Tyers whereas many of our favorite events begin to fire up, not the least of which is our first Pot Luck Supper. The NEFT does a lot of things right, but without doubt Pot Luck Suppers sit right up there near the top of the list. Members take the time to show off some of their best culinary efforts and no one goes home hungry. There will be a sign up sheet on Monday nights for anyone wishing to contribute in the hopes of preventing too many duplications. We encourage everyone to attend. Hope to see you there.

Lower Cape Fly Fishing Presentation

In addition to the great food on Pot Luck Supper night, there will also be a presentation on Fly Fishing the Lower Cape Cod. The presentation will focus on locations to fish on the Lower Cape, available fish, their seasonality, habitats, and tactics and suggested equipment will be included. Another interesting topic will be how to best prepare for your first experience into saltwater Fly Fishing.

Fish and Wildlife Demonstration

Through the efforts of Armand Courchaine, the New England Fly Tyers will be providing a fly tying demonstration at the Rabbit Hill Fish and Wildlife Headquarters in Westboro on November 14. This is a great opportunity for the NEFT to demonstrate its value to the fly fishing community and perhaps encourage a few visitors to become members. If you are interested in helping out please catch up with Armand on a Monday night this Month.

Please consider signing up for the 25 fly donation effort to help support the club. This is a great way to do what we love to do and contribute to the club also. Sign up on Monday nights.
